Hádá Secrets Japan launched a new fragrance in their women's bodywashes range as the sky lit up with fireworks on New Year's eve. In the hustle of everyday life of New Yorkers, it is the sky which instils a sense of calm in their minds. And on New Year's eve especially, one just can't miss out on the beauty of the New York Sky.

The latest curation of Hádá Secrets is enriched with the goodness of turmeric and honey and will provide a healing effect. Just like one can't miss out on gazing at the beauty of the New York Sky, one simply can't miss out on trying this product and experiencing its benefits on their skin.

Age old traditions have always valued turmeric and honey for their exceptional benefits on skin. To actually have a body wash with no sulphates, toxins or allergens, just 100% pure turmeric and honey is a dream come true for many. Additionally, 'New York Sky' is loaded with aloe vera, Vitamin C and Vitamin E.
